CLL Physicians recommended by CLL Society Readers*

As of April 9, 2020

Please send additions or corrections to the CLL Society at <https://cllsociety.org/contact-us/>
The ACOR CLL List maintains a list of CLL experts or specialists from around the world. <https://sites.google.com/site/acorclldoctorlist/> This list is updated every six months by the ACOR CLL List members and is an excellent place to start your search for a CLL expert as part of your team.

You may wish to also consider another list of CLL/NHL doctors compiled by Dr. Jeff Sharman at <http://www.cll-nhl.com/p/cllnhl-doctors.html?m=0#.Uei2O8u9KSM/>
<http://www.expertscape.com> ranks doctors by the quantity and quality of their publications. As they admit, there is much more to being an expert, but it is a good start and one that I recommend. That said, there are some errors, some listed are PhDs, not MDs and there are some glaring omissions on their CLL list at <http://www.expertscape.com/ex/leukemia,+lymphocytic,+chronic,+b-cell>.

Disclaimer: We are providing this unedited list of doctors for your convenience. Many, but not all, of the doctors on the CLL Physicians Recommended by CLL Society readers are CLL specialists. The CLL Society does not endorse any particular individual listed, nor do we make any judgment about the appropriateness of any doctor for your particular needs. It is the responsibility of each patient to research the qualifications of any medical professional with whom they seek treatment. Each areas' doctors are sorted alphabetically
